*W*e salute Mr. M. L. Bigler for the time and work he has put into making our school what it is today."

He was on the Board when the North Ward building was built and also when the present High School building was erected.

During his years on the Board, he has been Director, Treasurer, Secretary, President, and also a member of various committees.

Mr. Bigler has contributed much to the Bayard schools and we, as Seniors, wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for his services by dedicating our 1944 "Tiger" to him.

Publications

The Journalism class is responsible for the school publications—the Sandburr and The Tiger. First semester all of the class worked on publishing the Sandburr. The Sandburr is published every other week, The Tiger every Spring.

First semester alternating Editors of the Sandburr were Mildred Ericson, Darlene Sell, and Phyllis Moomaw and the second semester: Dean Suhr, Vera Suhr, and Barbara Burham.

The Sandburr has taken more of a magazine form this year and is somewhat larger than in previous years.

Seniors - The Navy

*O*n that warm September day, eighty-three Apprentice-Seamen started their boot training at Bayard High Naval Training Station. It was a strange phase of life which we now encountered, and many a new problem arose. We were always ambiguous as to the next step we would take, but we were eased by the able leadership of Admiral Zelda Birdsall, Vice-Admiral Bob O'Neal, Rear-Admiral Maxine Fields, Captain Doris Davidson, Commander Newell Wine and Lieutenant-Commander Mrs. Birdsall.

We commemorate Thomas Parks, whose ship was sunk on February 15, 1941.
—o—

Ready for our second training, were fifty-six Seamen Third-Class. We were then more confident of ourselves because of the previous naval training. That year, our commanding officers were Admiral Delbert Wimmer, Vice-Admiral Helen Valdez, Rear-Admiral Mervin Reichert, Captain Bob O'Neal, Commander Charles Beers and Lieutenant-Commander Mrs. Wimmer.

Next, we were able Second-Class Seamen—fifty-three of us. Our officers were Admiral Helen Bigler, Vice-Admiral Max Remick, Rear-Admiral Dorothy Mae Reichert, Captain Alvin Bauer, Commander Mrs. Rystrom and Lieutenant-Commander Mrs. Wimmer.

Our thoughts sail back to this eventful training in which we sponsored the Junior and Senior Banquet, the theme being "An Old-Fashion Garden." And remember how the Prom made possible the many nautical romances? Our Junior Class Play, "Cross My Heart," also brings back many memories.

At last, we received our rating as Seamen First-Class. There were forty-two of us taking our last naval training which we finally completed with assiduous efforts. Our cumulative achievements were aided this year by our commanding officers who were: Admiral Dean Suhr, Vice-Admiral Bob Hillman, Rear-Admiral Loretta Gardner and Captain Helen Brown. Two other very valuable assets to our Navy were Commander John Sohus and Lieutenant-Commander Mrs. Wimmer, who really toiled with us patiently.

So ends our Naval Training at Bayard High, and now we are ready for sea duty. We shall be assigned to many different ships—each ship going its own way, and we shall have to leave our "Buddies" behind.

Our journey is well launched now, and though we shall be very far apart, we shall all be held together under the supervision of Uncle Sam—manning our guns, throwing our lines, convoying ships, and signaling our Allies with our most dynamic power to reach our goal of "Victory."

Some of our former shipmates have already had their training and have sailed away. They are: John Ebel, who is in the Army, Richard Croxen, Max Remick, David Johnston, Alvin Keil, and Delbert Wimmer, who are in the Navy. Bob O'Neal, who has proved eligible for the Navy Air Corps, will be in by July 1, 1944.

So here's the best of luck to all you gallant fighting men and a challenge to the 1944 Seniors to contribute their efforts toward bringing this war to a victorious end.

Juniors - The Army

The Army of Juniors entered High School with Ninety-three recruits. We were drilled, put through maneuvers, and finally duly promoted. Mrs. Smith was chosen as our Guard and Miss Blanche Watt as our Commander-in-Chief. Our orders were given by Kayo Smith, executed by Emma Kildow, recorded by Bernice Hay, and our financial affairs were handled by Warren Anderson. As Freshman, three of our boys were decorated for their excellence in athletics. They were: Art Kechter, Dean Merry, and Bud Harris. Ruth Green was decorated for her musical success.

As tested Sophomores, sixty-five of us continued our training. This time we had Ralph Levick as our Captain, Dean Merry as Secondary Officer, Edna Hill as Maneuver Recorder, and Melvin Harris as Financial Manager. Both Mom Smith and Miss Watt were asked to serve with us again.

This year we won the Interclass W. A. C. Basketball Tournament. After much hard work and a lot of fun, our second phase of training was completed.

Twenty-one hardened Soldiers and thirty-nine experienced W. A. C.'s entered the third phase of training. Three of the boys from these ranks joined the armed services: Art Kechter, Ralph Levick, and James Hughes, who are all in the Navy. Our Commandant this year is Bud Harris; our tough Sarge, Clarence Yekel; our Company Scribe, Myrtle Johnson, and our Adjutant, Jimmy Pringle. The U. S. O. Hostess is "Mom" Smith and the chief in command is Mrs. Raymond. The Junior Basketball army won the interclass tournament.

On New Year's Eve, in honor of the Navy, the Army sponsored a banquet and dance which everyone enjoyed.

Ann Liakos and Jeanne Williams

Sophomores - The Marines

*I*n the fall of 1942, eighty-one raw recruits were inducted into the Marine Corps. It took a while to get used to camp life, but we soon learned how to fit into the new routine and to take the hard work in stride.

Our company was soon formed: Mrs. Beers and Mrs. Raymond were our instructors; Don O'Neill was commissioned as 1st Lieutenant; Colleen Parks, 2nd Lieutenant; Charles Genoways, Master Sergeant to call ranks; Russell Moomaw, Master Sergeant to supervise finances and Mrs. Libsack was appointed Base Mother.

Members of the company to receive major awards in football were Kenneth Bauer and Charles Genoways. Bruce Genoways received a minor award. No honors were won in Basketball, but two leathernecks, Johnny Liakos and Elidio Ayala, won citations in Track.

We were also ably represented by our Lady Marines in the following activities: Pep Club, Singing and Musical Groups, G.A.A., and the Girl's Basketball Tournament.

Outdoor Maneuvers included two expeditions to Chimney Rock a few miles from the Base.

For entertainment several parties were given at the Base by our company with other personnel of the Base in attendance. A party for our own group was given on Hallowe'en. We finished our first year a very different outfit than that group of green beginners that had entered training nine months before.

We entered the second phase of our training with a complete change of officers. This year our personnel included: Miss Runkel and Miss Stephens, instructors; Charles Genoways, 1st Lieutenant; Tom Nerud, 2nd Lieutenant; Lucille Libsack, Master Sergeant to call ranks; Edna Kniss, Master Sergeant to supervise finances and Miss Genoways, Base Mother.

We have tried to better our achievements of the first year. Awards in athletics were: (Football major awards) Kenneth Bauer, Charles Genoways and Bruce Genoways. No awards have yet been given in either Basketball or Track.

We have had neither a party or maneuvers of any kind but hope to do so before the year is over.

We feel that we have accomplished much in our training so far and look forward to the time when we can emerge as full-fledged Marines.

Freshmen - Coast Guard

One hundred Coast Guardsmen registered for training on September 26 and 27. The number has now decreased to 90. This group of recruits brought with it the largest class of boys ever to enter Bayard High. Most of these entered from Junior High, the remainder from neighboring country districts.

The officers chosen to guide us through our first year of training were Charles Wimmer, Captain; Tommy Couch, Lieutenant; Leland Keil, Log Keeper; and Ernest Nuss, Quartermaster; Mr. Beers was chosen Commander in Chief and Mrs. Dummit as the Guardsmen's "Mom."

We are proud of Tommy Couch, who was awarded the distinguished service letter in football, and Charles Wimmer and Bob Dummit for minor awards. Many other members of our company participated in active duty and we wish to pay tribute to them.

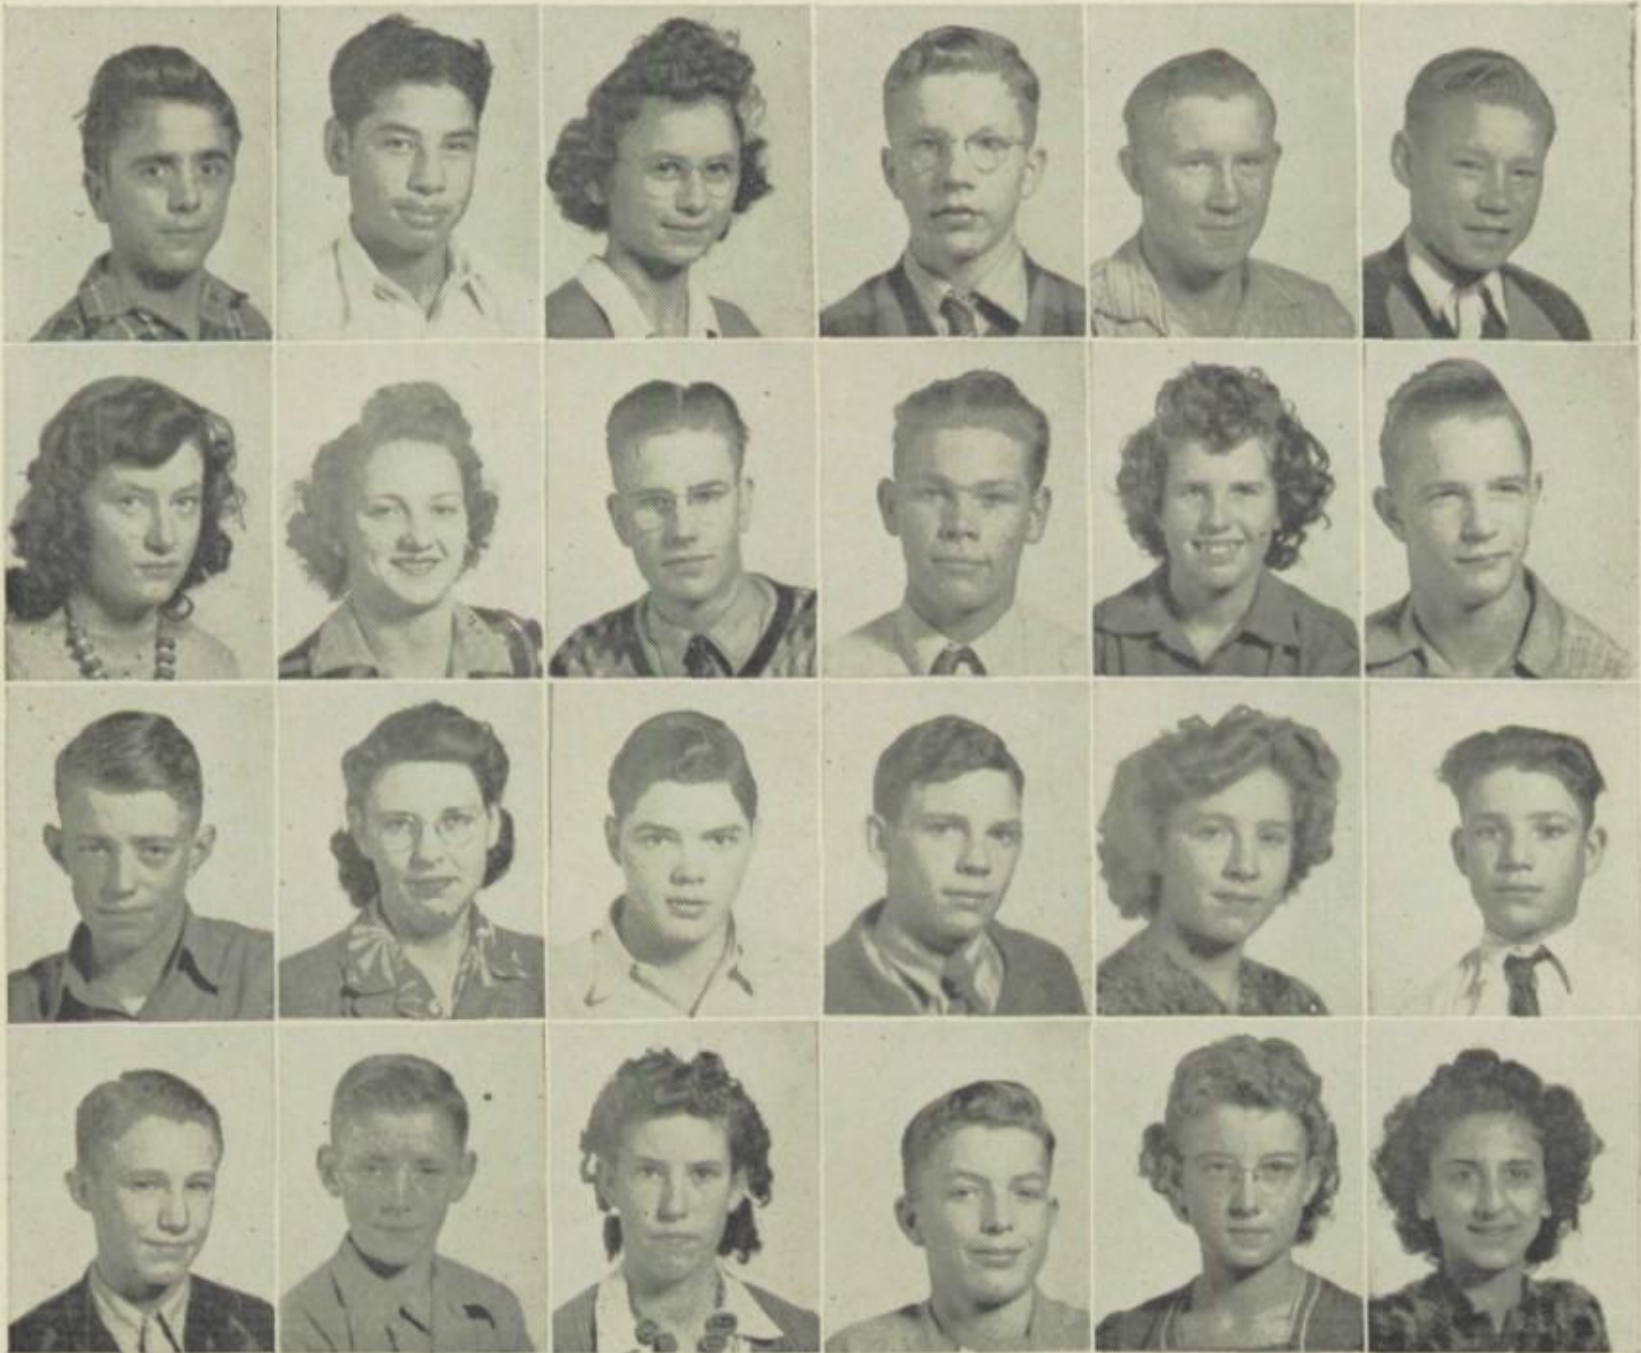

Our company took up the difficult tasks of making friends with other branches of the service, learning the rules of the institution, playing fair, and being considerate of fellow members of the school.

Members of our company showing scholastic ability are Lorene Kleim, Caroline Eirich, Leona Maser, Jackie Hill, Yvonne Hoxsworth, Donna Robertson, Verna Blackburn, June Policky, Billy Anderson, Floyd Burton, Bill Pullen, Fred Rusch, Bob Dummit and Dick Beltner.

Those never admitted to sick bay are Josephine Ensser, Charles Wimmer and Dwight Keil.

Under direction of very capable instructors we feel that our first year of training has brought us nearer our goal in life, and as it draws successfully to a close we hope that in future years we will accomplish even more.

A C T I V I T I E S

Without the various clubs and organizations, the average student would probably acquire little knowledge of accomplishments being carried on outside his own class.

For both girls and boys are the various musical groups. This year we have both Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs and small groups from the different classes.

The boys' interests lead to the athletic activity of the school. There is the "B" Club which is the social organization for the boys. Mr. Garber, the coach, is sponsor of this group. Also included in the athletics, are football, basketball, and track.

Girls' interests lead to G. A. A. which is an athletic organization for all girls who wish to join. The main athletic event of this group is the Girls Basketball Tournament which is held in the spring.

The "Pep" Club is an organization only for girls. It is for the purpose of creating and stressing school spirit and pep. This club also entertains the "B" Club and also various other organizations of the school.

Other activities that afford a great deal of entertainment for the members of the school are those that are sponsored by the various classes. One of the most outstanding events of the winter season was the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, which was sponsored by the Junior Class.

The school paper, the "Sandburr" is published every other week by members of the Journalism class under the supervision of Mr. Sohus.

The school yearbook is published and edited by a group of seniors who were chosen by the high school faculty.

These extra-curricular activities are a great benefit to the students of Bayard High and are of great importance in their future lives.

Football Commandos

Scottsbluff defeated Bayard 25-6 after the Tigers took a first quarter 6-0 lead, at the halftime whistle the score stood 6-0. Scottsbluff overpowered in the second half to an end 25-6 victory.

Bayard with their 2nd and 1st teams, ran wild to a 45-0 win over a green Lyman team. All of Bayard's teams scored for our first victory.

Bayard won their second conference game with a 6-0 win over Morrill in the first half. With this game Bayard's team started rolling on the road to the N.P.V.C. championship.

Bayard defeated top ranking Mitchell with a 7-6 score, placing us in the leading position in the N.P.V.C. race. Outstanding back was Delbert Wimmer, while linemen Smith, O'Neal and Sides held up the line for the winners.

With Wimmer scoring both touchdowns, the Tigers defeated the Gering Bulldogs 14-0. One of the toughest games of the season, it took real playing to defeat the tough Gering team.

Due to the harvest vacation, Bayard made a poor showing against the Sidney team. In this, the toughest game of season, the Tiger team attained many injuries, including Wimmer, O'Neal, Keil and Frakes. The Maroons won 33-13.

With Harris of Bayard kicking a lone field goal, the Tigers dropped Bridgeport, with whom we were tied for the conference with a 3-0 win. Both sides displayed fine running, blocking and tackling in this exciting and tough game.

Running Wild, Dean Merry spurred the Tigers to a 21-0 win over the Kimball's Longhorn's. With a high wind blowing both teams were held to the ground offensive. This year was the first time that the Longhorns have been included in the Tigers schedule.

In a thrill-packed Turkey Day game the Tigers enjoyed a victory for their last initial game of 1943, defeating Minatare 6-0 to cinch the N.P.V.C. championship.

Suffering from the defeat handed them by the Scottsbluff Bearcats the Tigers wound up second in the Western Nebraska Conference.

Basketball

The Bayard Tigers with seven returning lettermen began the 1944 season with three consecutive wins. The first two games Bayard met Bridgeport, 18-16, and Morrill, 27-24. In the third win Bayard romped a green Lyman team 29-10. All three teams offered stiff competition.

Bayard, after holding the Bearcats to a close first half, fell for their defeat 48-25. Gering rallied in the late last half to spell Bayard's second defeat. Minatare dumped in late baskets to defeat Bayard 33-24.

Repeating their early season games Bayard again defeated Morrill 32-20. The Tigers fell prey to a strong Mitchell team, second in the class "B" tourney, 55-23. Trying to repeat a win over Bridgeport, Bayard failed to get the baskets and were defeated 31-25. Bayard's basketball squad and pep club were entertained by the Bridgeport Pep Club and basketball team after the game.

The Tigers overpowered the fighting Lyman Wildcats for a repeat win 30-14. Bayard was handed their worst defeat of the season when the Tigers were downed by the Minatare Indians in the winner's gym, 41-13. Gering, invading Bayard in both teams initial game of the 1944 season defeated the Tigers, 35-29.

Helen Bigler

Football Queen, 1943

B Club - Navy Air Corps

Bayard's B-Club is made up of athletes who have won a letter in any or all of the three major sports, which include football, basketball, and track. To win this honor they must comply with the standards and rules set up by the Nebraska High School Athletic Association.

This year the B-Club had 19 Major lettermen and 5 minor lettermen in football alone, and we hope to gain more as the basketball and track seasons close.

Coach Garber, who leads us through the sports season, is the sponsor of the organization. The officers are Bob O'Neal, President; Delbert Wimmer, Vice President; and Marvin Sides, Secretary-Treasurer.

The senior boys leaving B-Club this year are Glenn Calvert, Bob O'Neal, Marvin Sides, Mervin Reichert, Dean Suhr, Delbert Wimmer, and Bob Hillman. In leaving the B-Club the seniors wish a successful year to the 1944-45 athletic and B-Club organizations.

The B-Club has several traditional activities, besides the dances, etc. that are arranged for and by them. One of these traditional activities is the election of an annual Football Queen, which is a title coveted and sought after by the Bayard High School girls. This year's queen, elected by the votes made possible by the sale of season tickets, was Helen Bigler. She will go down in the records and history of Bayard High because of the high honor of this position.

Track - Infantry

Returning lettermen for the track season of 1944 are: Dean Merry, Glenn Calvert, Delbert Wimmer, Alvin Kiel, Melvin Harris, Johnny Liakos.

Promising candidates are: Charles Genoways, Marvin Sides, Dean Suhr, Bob Hillman, Bob O'Neal, and Harold Schwartz.

Coach Garber reports that we should have a very successful season.

Girls' Glee Club - Canteen Entertainers

The Canteen Entertainers, a group of 42 members and one of the most talented groups in school, is known to us as Girls' Glee Club.

The Entertainers started their '43-'44 career under the direction of Miss Margaret Stephens. Miss Stephens is a graduate of Rising City High School and also of the University of Nebraska.

The first appearance of Girls Glee Club was at the annual Christmas Vesper Program at the High School Auditorium, December 19, 1943. Their next appearance was in convocation in the early part of January. The first week in May a group of the Entertainers represented Bayard at the District Music Clinic held at Gering.

From Girls' Glee Club were chosen small groups to represent each class. There is a Freshmen sextette, Sophomore Trio, Junior triple trio, and a Senior sextette.

Special acclaim should be given to Edna Kniss who has done a splendid job accompanying the Entertainers throughout the year.

Boy's Glee Club - Coast Guard Radiomen

The Coast Guard Radiomen started their training this year with a total number of twenty boys. They had as their Commanding Officer, Miss Stephens, who gave them their basic information and guided them well at all times.

The Radiomen met every Tuesday and Thursday from three o'clock to four o'clock, and worked diligently to perform their duty in the best possible manner.

They were accompanied by Miss Betty Lambert.

Some of the favorite songs the Coast Guard Radiomen learned were: "We Sail the Ocean Blue," "La Cucaracha," "A Log in the Fire," "Beautiful Dreamer," "On the Road to Mandalay," "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," and "All Day on the Prairie."

On December 18, 1943 at four o'clock, the Radiomen took part in the Radio Broadcast at Station Bayard High, which was presented in the form of a Christmas Vesper Program.

At present, they are preparing songs which they plan to sing at the Music Clinic to be held at Gering in the spring.

Band - Coast Guard Musicians

The Coast Guard Musicians at the beginning of the year numbered thirty.

About eight beginners came into the organization soon after school began and there were forty-five members by the Spring Concert.

A small group of the Musicians have formed an orchestra and practice on Monday nights under the direction of Commander Beers.

During the month of February three concerts were given. One for the Junior and Senior High, one for North Ward and a public concert on February 23.

Two other public concerts were given, a "March Concert" during March and a Spring Concert in the early part of May.

The music the Coast Guard Musicians play can be considered in three groups; Marches, Classical, and Popular. As the members increase the music becomes better.

Twelve members of the Band attended Band Clinic at Gering during May, along with members from several other schools in the Valley.

A new organization has been formed to help Mr. Beers obtain special privileges for the Band, it is the Band Mothers Club. On February 16 a benefit was given by this club for the purpose of raising money for new uniforms. On St. Patrick's night a Dance was sponsored by the Band and this club for the same purpose.

The Coast Guard Musicians look forward to many new members next year.

Pep Club - Canteen Hostesses

*I*n September, 1943, the Pep Club of Bayard High School became "Canteen Hostesses."

We came into camp with our group full of pep and were ready to generate pep to the students. The purpose of our organization is to promote school spirit. We had rallies and skits for our "Tigers" and cheered on the side lines for them in victory or defeat.

There were over thirty girls who entered Pep Club this year, going through our informal and formal initiation. During football season we sponsored the crowning of the school football queen who was Helen Bigler.

To guide our club we chose Marilyn O'Neal as Chairman; Phyllis Moomaw as Assistant Chairman; Bessie Benson as Secretary, and Helen Valdez as Treasurer. Miss O'Keefe was appointed Head Supervisor.

To lead our group and the student body in yells, etc., we had Marilyn O'Neal, Bertha Bastron, and Dorothy Green as our Cheerleaders.

G. A. A. - Navy Nurses

The Navy Nurses started the season with eighty-six active members. Miss O'Keefe took over the work of instructing this huge corps of girls. The corps was divided into two classes, the first class took their training in the morning from eleven o'clock until eleven-fifty-five o'clock. The second class began at three o'clock and ended at three-fifty-five. Tuesdays and Thursdays were the days set aside for training.

The girls chose as officers Helen Bigler, Head Nurse; Dorothy Cadwell, Lieutenant Commander; and Ionia Hageman, General Staff.

The Nurses drew names for secret pals soon after the beginning of the second semester. The rules were—a not each week and a small gift when so desired. The girls found out who their secret pals were at a large Corps party held in the latter part of April.

The girls Inter-Class tournament was held March seventh and ninth. The Juniors hold the title of "Champs."

No letters will be awarded this year because Health Charts have not been kept by any of the recruits.

Participation in games such as soft-ball, volley ball, basketball, and tennis were enjoyed very much by all who played.
